

GUEST SPEAKER @ GBG

Dolores Skowronski-Malloni

Friends of Geelong Botanic Gardens

‘The History of Botanical Art’

Monday 26 February, 5.30 pm for a 6.00 pm start.

Meeting Room at the rear of the Gardens

Join the Friends to hear Dolores Skowronski-Malloni (international artist and tutor at Geelong School of Botanical Art) give an illustrated talk on the History of Botanical Art, from 300 AD through to present day.

Topics will include the birth of taxonomy and illustrations of plants over time and cultures, the purpose of a Florilegium, plant collections, Botanical Art techniques and design concepts. Dolores will also talk about the importance of trees and scientific illustration with mention of contemporary Australian Botanical Artists.

A light supper will be provided. Located in the meeting room at the rear of the Gardens.

$5 members or $10 non-members

RSVP by Wednesday 24 February 2018

Ph. (03) 5222 6053

www.friendsgbg.org.au

